Linscheid Library
Distance Learners

Definition of Distance Learners
Distance learners are East Central University students that are enrolled in classes at locations other than the main campus.

Reference Services
Linscheid Library offers reference services to all East Central University students regardless of location and format of class delivery. The Reference Desk can be reached by telephone at 580.559.5371 during all library hours except Saturdays. Students can also ask questions via email at refdesk@ecok.edu.

Document Delivery
The document delivery service allows distance learners to request articles and/or books owned by the Linscheid Library. Library materials can be sent to Shawnee, McAlester and Ardmore sites via courier. Home delivery can be requested by students enrolled in programs at other satellite locations.

Electronic Resources
Electronic resources are easily accessible from home computers, or other devices with an internet connection, with a valid ECU login. Any other special requirements will be listed on the Electronic Resources website. A full list of databases, descriptions, and access information is available at the Linscheid Library website.
