All materials owned by the Linscheid Library are subject to copyright restrictions as detailed in Copyright Law, Title 17 of the United States Code. Permission must be obtained in writing before duplication of copyrighted materials can take place. The library can assist users in contacting the copyright holder, when necessary, using the Copyright Clearance Center. Limited duplication of copyrighted materials may be permissible under the Fair Use guidelines in the Copyright Law. Please consult the Media Services Librarian, 580.559.5373.

According to copyright law, permission is necessary for the following:

1. Archival copies.
2. Streaming video content.
3. Multiple copies.

Any patron who chooses to duplicate library materials, in whole or in part, assumes full responsibility for adhering to copyright law.
