Audiovisual materials are non-print materials, including DVDs, CDs and other sound recordings, and disc-stored data and software.

1. All materials in the collection are subject to copyright restrictions and may not be copied, videotaped, duplicated in whole or part, altered, or edited in any manner without written permission from the copyright holder and Linscheid Library.
2. No materials may be cablecast or telecast in whole or part without written permission from the copyright holders.
3. The user will be responsible for previewing all materials prior to showing. The library is not responsible for material content.
4. No admission fee may be charged for any showing where material belonging to the Linscheid Library is used.
5. Audiovisual materials on loan from the library may not be used for commercial distribution or displayed in a public forum (school, daycare, etc.) regardless of financial gain.
6. Materials may not be loaned to other groups, organizations, or individuals.
7. The user is liable for all damage to (beyond normal wear) or loss of materials while in the user’s possession.
8. Damaged items should be returned to the Linscheid Library as soon as possible for replacement or removal.
