Editing Your Title

The font and format of your title should not change (Times New Roman, white).

To enter your title, highlight the text box and type over the existing text.

If you need to expand the textbox, click on the border indicator and drag in the desired direction.

Since some titles are longer than others, the font size can be changed, but the title should still be prominent and easily readable (no smaller than 70).